

DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE
UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT SAN ANTONIO
TENURE-TRACK POSITIONS

The Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Texas at San Antonio seeks to fill one or more tenure-track positions at the Assistant Professor rank beginning Fall 2020. Those with interests in quantitative analysis, big data analytics, or similar computational approaches to the study of criminal justice policy, policing, and/or health applications are especially encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or closely related field by the time of appointment, along with demonstrated excellence in scholarly research, effective teaching, commitment to service, and the promise of excellence in grant acquisition. The successful candidate must also have the ability to work with and be sensitive to the educational needs of a diverse urban population and be committed to assisting the University, at the Department level, in its endeavor to become a Hispanic Serving Institution. Moreover, the successful candidate(s) must demonstrate their ability to work with and be sensitive to the educational needs of diverse urban populations and support the University's commitment to thrive as a Hispanic Serving Institution and a model for student success. Teaching and research expectations are commensurate with Research I institutions.

UTSA is a multicultural discovery enterprise institution that continues to move toward Research I status and currently enrolls more than 32,000 students. The Department is housed within the College of Public Policy on UTSA's Downtown campus, which is located in the heart of San Antonio. The Department currently offers a B.A. in Criminal Justice and a M.S. in Criminal Justice and Criminology to a population of more than 800 undergraduate and 40 graduate students. For further information about the Department, please visit our website: <http://copp.utsa.edu/criminal-justice/>.

Applicants should submit: (1) a research and teaching statement, which should include a discussion about the role of diversity and inclusion in an academic environment; (2) current curriculum vitae; (3) one to three examples of published scholarly work; and (4) names and contact information of three references whom we may contact.

All materials must be submitted through: <https://jobs.utsa.edu>

When entering the portal, click on the "Faculty" tab to find the position announcement.

All questions regarding these positions should be directed to:

Marie Tillyer, Ph.D.

Chair, Search Committee

Department of Criminal Justice

Marie.Tillyer@utsa.edu

210-458-2682

For questions concerning the submission of materials, please contact:

Cammie Diaz

Senior Administrative Associate

Department of Criminal Justice, University of Texas at San Antonio

Cammie.Diaz@utsa.edu

210-458-2679

Review of applications begins September 24th and will continue until the position is filled.

---

The University of Texas at San Antonio is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by the time of hire.